

Yemte Yidji

Music: Dan Svensson

Lyrics: Nadin Al Khalidi

From which place?

From the soul of the rain and the seasons

From which era?

From mountains of books and the pioneers paths

When would that sweet human that ´s within us come out to life?

When the time is right, we ´ll know

Where from?

From the winds and the water from the back streets and the small villages from the sun and the shade from the books and the pen (words) and the love and the moon
