

Kalam

Music: Gabriel Hermansson

Lyrics: Nadin Al Khalidi

Your talk is hard to understand
Your voice is muted and strange to me
The letters you´ve been putting together, making no sense
As for your song, your story,
They don´t move me no more
Your song is primitive,
And non human
So cut the talk
This case is closed long time ago
You´re a fascinating one; talented, big and popular, and too good for me you think
But hey, these are only illusions;
As for your song, your story,
They don´t move me no more
Your song is primitive,
And non human
So cut the talk
This case is closed long time ago
Your song is primitive
Our tale is over and farewell already
